Overview

The pump application, education and initiation process can feel overwhelming. This practical workshop will assist you to navigate the administrative side of insulin pump service development and delivery.

Attendees will gain an insight into the successful private insulin pump service model at the Baker Institute, along with practical administrative tips for implementation of a new, or review of an existing insulin pump service at their workplace.

Please note that clinical aspects of pump functionality will not be addressed in this workshop.

Diabetes educators are eligible to claim 4 CPD points toward ADEA credentialing.

Topics will include:

1. Fundamentals of running an insulin pump service and structuring appointments
2. Preparing your client for an insulin pump
3. Engagement with insulin pump representatives
4. Equipment, checklists and resources
5. Paperwork, including pump application forms and health insurance documentation
