Overview

This program will be delivered online via Zoom conferencing.

More people with type 2 diabetes are now being prescribed insulin therapy.

This practical 3 hour workshop will expand healthcare professionals' knowledge about the initiation and titration of insulin, to assist in the management of type 2 diabetes.

The program will be presented by experienced Credentialed Diabetes Nurse Educators who actively commence and manage clients on insulin therapy in their daily clinics.

Registered healthcare professionals working with clients with type 2 diabetes, in particular practice nurses and recently graduated diabetes educators are encouraged to attend.

Topics will include:

- Normal patterns of insulin secretion
- Equipment and resources required to educate and support clients commencing insulin
- Insulin initiation
- Titrating insulin aiming to achieve target blood glucose levels
- Identification and management of hypoglycaemia
- Identifying dietary carbohydrate
